Jeni, here is the schedule. The county has now postponed the rebranding launch meeting and the city-county BOH still hasn't decided on the IC steering committee so no idea whether there will be an IC steering committee meeting next week. Rebecca is going to try to speak with Shaun today to make sure he still wants to come to Libby. As soon as I know more will let you know.

Hey Jennifer,

I was just wondering when you hoped to have the schedule for Shawn's visit someone finalized, or at least what the latest was. We're still trying to coordinate travel and now may have reason for two vehicles to go up, depending on schedule.
